The Cohort Approach The program accepts students in groups to pursue each course together in a cohort. Lifelong friendships are developed through this format, and learning takes place in a spirit of unity, rigor, and cooperation.

Program Delivery and CalendarStudents will be accepted into cohorts who will complete the program utilizing an innovative delivery system designed to meet the needs of educators. Ed.S. students will begin the program with a course offered on Saturdays in February and March, 8 a.m. - 2:30 p.m. over 5 1/2 Saturdays. The Summer term involves an intensive two months in which Leadership is to prepare leaders who will make a difference in June and July, and two days a week in June and July. as moral agents and sensitive social advocates for the lime is provided during the summer for library research, on the central issues of learning and teaching and school In the fall, instruction occurs on Saturdays, 8 a.m. – 2:30 p.m. on 5 1/2 Saturdays for a course in September and October, followed by other courses offered on Saturdays in November-December, January-February, March-April, and May-June-July. Saturdays are utilized for courses offered January through May. The guiding principle is that students will complete one course before moving to another.

> Instructional Leadership students begin the Practicum in their rst semester. The Practicum runs through June of the second summer of the program. Students and faculty maintain online contact during the intervening weeks and months in support of course assignments. Saturdays are also utilized for courses offered January through June. In June students complete their Practicum and, with C&S students, present their Leadership Growth Papers.

Also in June, IL students take the Praxis II School Leader's Licensure Assessment (SLLA) for licensure and for graduation in August. The program enables the candidates to advance through Tennessee's four-tiered licensure system.

Each cohort is presented its unique calendar for the of standards developed by the Educational Leadership complete program. Current Ed.S. calendars are available at http://www.uu.edu/academics/graduate/eds/
