

ADULT STUDIES

Union University provides non-traditional programs and services aimed toward the adult student.

Financial Policies

Tuition and payment plans are program-specific; see the program director/coordinator of your program. Union University reserves the right to change the tuition and fees without notice. The General Student fee covers a variety of University costs, including but not limited to the following: health services fee, admissions to athletic and campus-sponsored events, student activities, counseling services, student organization fees, career services, academic tutoring, wellness center membership, intramurals, post office box rental, student publications, computer lab/technology fee, online learning management system, graduation fee, printing, class dues, student ID, parking fee/sticker, and library services. Certain courses will carry an additional fee. For a listing of fees for materials, etc., see the Financial Information section of this Catalogue. Courses taken through Cross-Campus Agreement will be billed at the Union program-specific rate. University refund policies are printed in the Financial Information section of the Catalogue. Questions regarding program specific financial policies should be directed to the program director/coordinator or FACTS Coordinator.

Employment Reimbursement

Students enrolled in non-traditional programs may apply for financial assistance to attend Union University. Acceptance to the program is required.

Applications for financial assistance should be submitted to the Financial Aid Office. The application process includes a review of the student's financial situation, including income, assets, and liabilities. The Financial Aid Office will determine the amount of financial assistance available to the student. Financial assistance is awarded on a need-based basis. The amount of financial assistance awarded may vary from year to year. Financial assistance is awarded in the form of a grant or scholarship. Financial assistance is not a loan and does not need to be repaid. Financial assistance is awarded for the duration of the student's enrollment in a non-traditional program.
