J. Henry Allen (2013). Assistant Professor of History. B.A., B.B.A., M.B.A., University of Memphis; M.A., Trinity Evangelical Divinity School; M.L.S., University of Maryland; Ph.D., The George Washington University.

D. Keith Bates (2004). Professor of History. B.A., Union University; M.A., Southwestern Baptist Theological Seminary;

2. Honors contracts in two courses (HIS 497, HIS 498) that focus on the student's honors thesis:

- The student must take an independent study (HIS 497) to launch the honors thesis project;
- The student must take a directed-study senior seminar (HIS 498) to complete the honors thesis;
- The student must earn a final grade of A in both HIS 497 and HIS 498.
- The student must complete the honors thesis by the end of the fall semester of his/her senior year (based on the assumption that the student will graduate at the conclusion of the spring semester that immediately follows).

C. Present his/her honors thesis in an abridged form at an acceptable history conference.

D. Defend successfully his/her honors thesis before a committee of three full-time Union University professors, two of whom will be from the Department of History.

E. Attend 4 honors colloquia per year as determined by the Director of the Honors Community.

Assessment of Majors

History 498 is the culmination of the history major's study in which the student demonstrates the use of the tools of historical research and writing by composing a major paper that includes primary sources. This course requires the major to discuss with fellow history students the methodological and historiographical problems that historians face and to share the findings of his/her paper in a seminar setting. All senior history majors must also take the Area Concentration Achievement Test (ACAT) in History.
